CHICANO STUDIES

Gustavo Garcia Lecture Series:
Chicanos and Public Policy

PRESENTS

Gilberto Cardenas

CURRENT LEGISLATIVE AND ADMINISTRATIVE INITIATIVES TO CONTROL IMMIGRATION FROM MEXICO

Dr. Gilberto Cardenas, Professor of Sociology at the University of Texas-Austin, is a distinguished scholar and teacher in the fields of immigration, demographic patterns of Spanish-speaking populations, the civil rights of undocumented workers, and the educational problems facing barrio youth and the children of undocumented workers. Cardenas' wide experience and research contributions have led to his present stature as a commentator on North American and Hemispheric immigration movements.

Date: Thursday, Dec. 4
Time: 12:00 Noon
Place: Historical Society

Sponsored by:

University Lectures Committee, Chicano Studies Program, Chicano Grad Student Assoc., & MECHA.

