EL CINE de LA RAZE - CHICANO FILM SERIES: CHICANO. Explores the various manifestations of bias, oppression, and discrimination which affect Mexican-Americans. Presents the goals of the Chicano movement in the various organizations which represent the Mexican-American communities. Explains that Mexican-Americans do not want to give up their language and cultural heritages. They want to be recognized as bilingual and bicultural Americans, and they want to be visible and have a voice in the decision-making that affects their lives.

RUN UP AND DOWN THESE STREETS. A film within-a-film of the Chicano outpatients at a methadone treatment clinic in Santa Fe, N.M. The documentary is largely produced by the ex-addicts and arrives at some specific insights regarding the nature of addiction, its relation to crime, the effects of recism and poverty and the economics of community rehabilitation compared to the alternatives of incarceration or ignoring the problem.

CHICANO LECTURE SERIES: Dr. Raul Ruiz, Harvard University

MAY 4 Monday 7 & 8:45 pm Memorial Union	EL CINE de LA RAZE - CHICANO FILM SERIES SALT OF THE EARTH. Highlights the cause of the Mexican American miners as they struggled to organize and the women struggled for dignity and humanity.
MAY 5 Tuesday 7 & 8:45 pm Memorial Union	EL CINE de LA RAZE - CHICANO FILM SERIES: SI SE PUEDE. Presents the cause of the Mexican-American farmworkers includes Cesar Chavez's 24 days fast in Arizona to protest proposed anti-strike legislation and the organizing campaign that grew out of it. REQUIEM 29. A documentary account of the Chicano Moratorium against the War in August, 1970. The film interweaves footage of the mass march and the inquest into the death of journalist Ruben Salazar who was killed by police. The courtroom behavior of the presiding judge provides an illustration of the racial prejudices faced by Mexican Americans.
MAY 6 Wednesday 7 & 9 pm Memorial Union	EL CINE de LA RAZE - CHICANO FILM SERIES: LOS DE ABAJO. This film brings to life the classic novel of the Mexican Revolution of 1910 by Mariano Azuela, who served during that conflict as a medic in the famous "Division of the North" led by Poncho Villa. It tells the story of the oppression that exploded in the civil war, the hardships of what became the first revolution of the century, and the unresolved issue that remain in Mexico to this day.
MAY 7 Thursday 8:30 pm Memorial Union	PERFORMANCE BY THE NATIONAL CHICANO DANCE THEATRE: "The National Chicano Dance Theatre is a mosiac of dramatic music, song, and dance showcased in beautifully stylized stage setting and colorful authentic costumes." El Diario Newspaper Boulder, Colorado
